

Announcing a public remembrance for beloved Professor

Florence L. Denmark, PhD
(January 28, 1931 - May 25, 2026)

Across her extraordinary career of 68 years, Florence was a beloved teacher and mentor, prolific researcher, and past President of a dozen key psychology associations—regional, national, and global—including the American Psychological Association in 1980. She chaired three programs at Hunter College, CUNY Graduate Center, and Pace University. In New York City, all are welcome to join Florence's family to share memories of Florence.

October 18, 2026, Sunday, 1-5 pm at Fordham University
McNally Auditorium, 113 W. 60 St., NYC

1-2:40 pm: Remembrance

3-4:40 pm: Symposium and book-signing on gender

All are welcome. Refreshments are served.

Seating is limited. Be sure to RSVP by Oct 2: <https://luma.com/haect9hy>

This is hosted with the NYS Psychological Association and its Division of Women's Issues, in concert with several of Florence's many associations. For any details, contact Takposh@aol.com

NYT: www.legacy.com/us/obituaries/nytimes/name/florence-denmark-obituary?id=61820655

ICP: <https://icpweb.org/tribute-to-dr-florence-denmark-1932-2026/>

APA: <https://societyforglobalpsychology.org/tribute-to-florence-denmark/>

For details on an online global webinar this November 3, contact Dominique at breathe@dominiqueeugene.com

Announcing a forum and book-signing  in honor of Florence L. Denmark,

Global perspectives on gender

“How much does gender vary across nations and cultures?” Here, five experts review diverse aspects of this question, in a bold new volume from the Psychology Coalition at the United Nations (PCUN).

Moderator: Margaret Brady-Amoon, PhD, President, NYSPA

Welcomes: Elaine P. Congress, DSW, MA, Book Editor, PCUN

Carolyn Springer, PhD, President-Elect, NYSPA Div of Women's Issues

Leonard Davidman, PhD, Manhattan Psychological Association

Elaine H. Olaoye, PhD, International Council of Psychologists

Jason R. Young, PhD, Past-President, Psi Chi Honor Society

Presenters:

Addressing gender-based violence

Kalyani Gopal, PhD, HSPP

Gender and feminism in India and the USA

Dinesh Sharma, PhD

Gender and religion

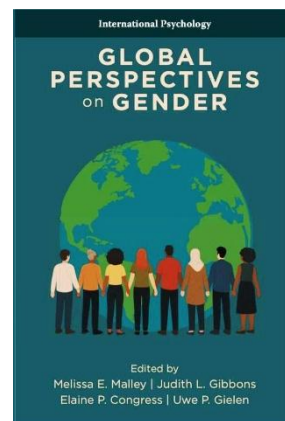

Richard A. Spenst, DMin & Alexis Zimmerman, MSW

Gender diversity in a global context

S.J. Dodd, MSW, PhD & Brianna Scolaro, MSW

Colonization, gender roles, and Indigenous women

Josephine C.H. Tan, PhD

18 October 2026, Sunday 3-4:40 pm

McNally Auditorium, Fordham University, 113 West 60 St., NYC

Refreshments are served. All are welcome.

 This forum and book-signing debuts the new PCUN volume on gender, available at 33% discount ($30, cash preferred). This is hosted by Fordham University, PCUN, NYSPA, in concert with DOWI, SPSSI-NY, Manhattan Psychological Assn, Psi Chi, APA. For any details: takoosh@aol.com
For NYSPA Continuing Education Units, contact Carolyn at: springer@adelphi.edu
This forum follows the memorial for Florence L. Denmark at 1 pm, and is dedicated to her.

Notes: <https://psychologycoalitionun.org/454-2/>, <https://icpweb.org/>, www.spssi.org/ny www.psichi.org <https://societyforglobalpsychology.org/>

