Exhibitor Information

About EPA

Eastern Psychological Association (EPA), founded in 1896, is the oldest regional Psychological Association in the United States. Its sole purpose is to advance the science and profession through the dissemination of professional information about the field of Psychology. EPA achieves this goal by conducting its annual meeting where members present the latest advances in professional and scientific work to their colleagues. EPA welcomes psychologists from all fields across the discipline.

Annual Conference

The annual EPA meeting allows researchers from all areas of psychology to present their work in the form of talks, posters, and symposia. Keynote speakers and invited speakers also present at the conference.

Attendance at the Conference

We expect approximately 2000 people to attend this year's EPA conference in Philadelphia. Attendees will include academic and professional psychologists, undergraduate and graduate students.

Exhibit Hours and Setup

Exhibit hours will be Friday March 2nd and Saturday March 3rd from 8:00 AM until 5:00 PM EST. Setup time will be Friday morning 6:00 AM.
