

AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

APF/ Div. 42 Steven O. Walfish Grant: $2,250

Deadline: September 30, 2020

The Steven O. Walfish Grants supported by the Div. 42 Next Generation Fund promote and support the next generation of student and early career practitioner psychologists to expand the knowledge base in the practice of psychology. Applicants are required to submit manuscripts on clinical, practical or research innovations that address evolving standards, practices and methods in psychological practice. Topics may include population-based practice issues, procedure or technique-based practice issues, diagnosis-based practice issues or service delivery models describing a practice innovation. Grant recipients are encouraged to use the grant to attend the APA convention to present their work. The papers of the grant recipients may qualify for publication in the Div. 42 journal, Practice Innovations.

Up to two $2,250 grants are available to graduate students (within two years or less of completing the doctoral degree) and/or early career psychologists (within 10 years of earning the doctoral degree). Winner(s) will receive a one-year free membership to Div. 42.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Be a graduate student or an early career psychologist.
- Submit a manuscript that has not been previously published.
- In the case of multi-authored manuscripts, the role of each co-author should be described, and the award candidate's role must be primary.
